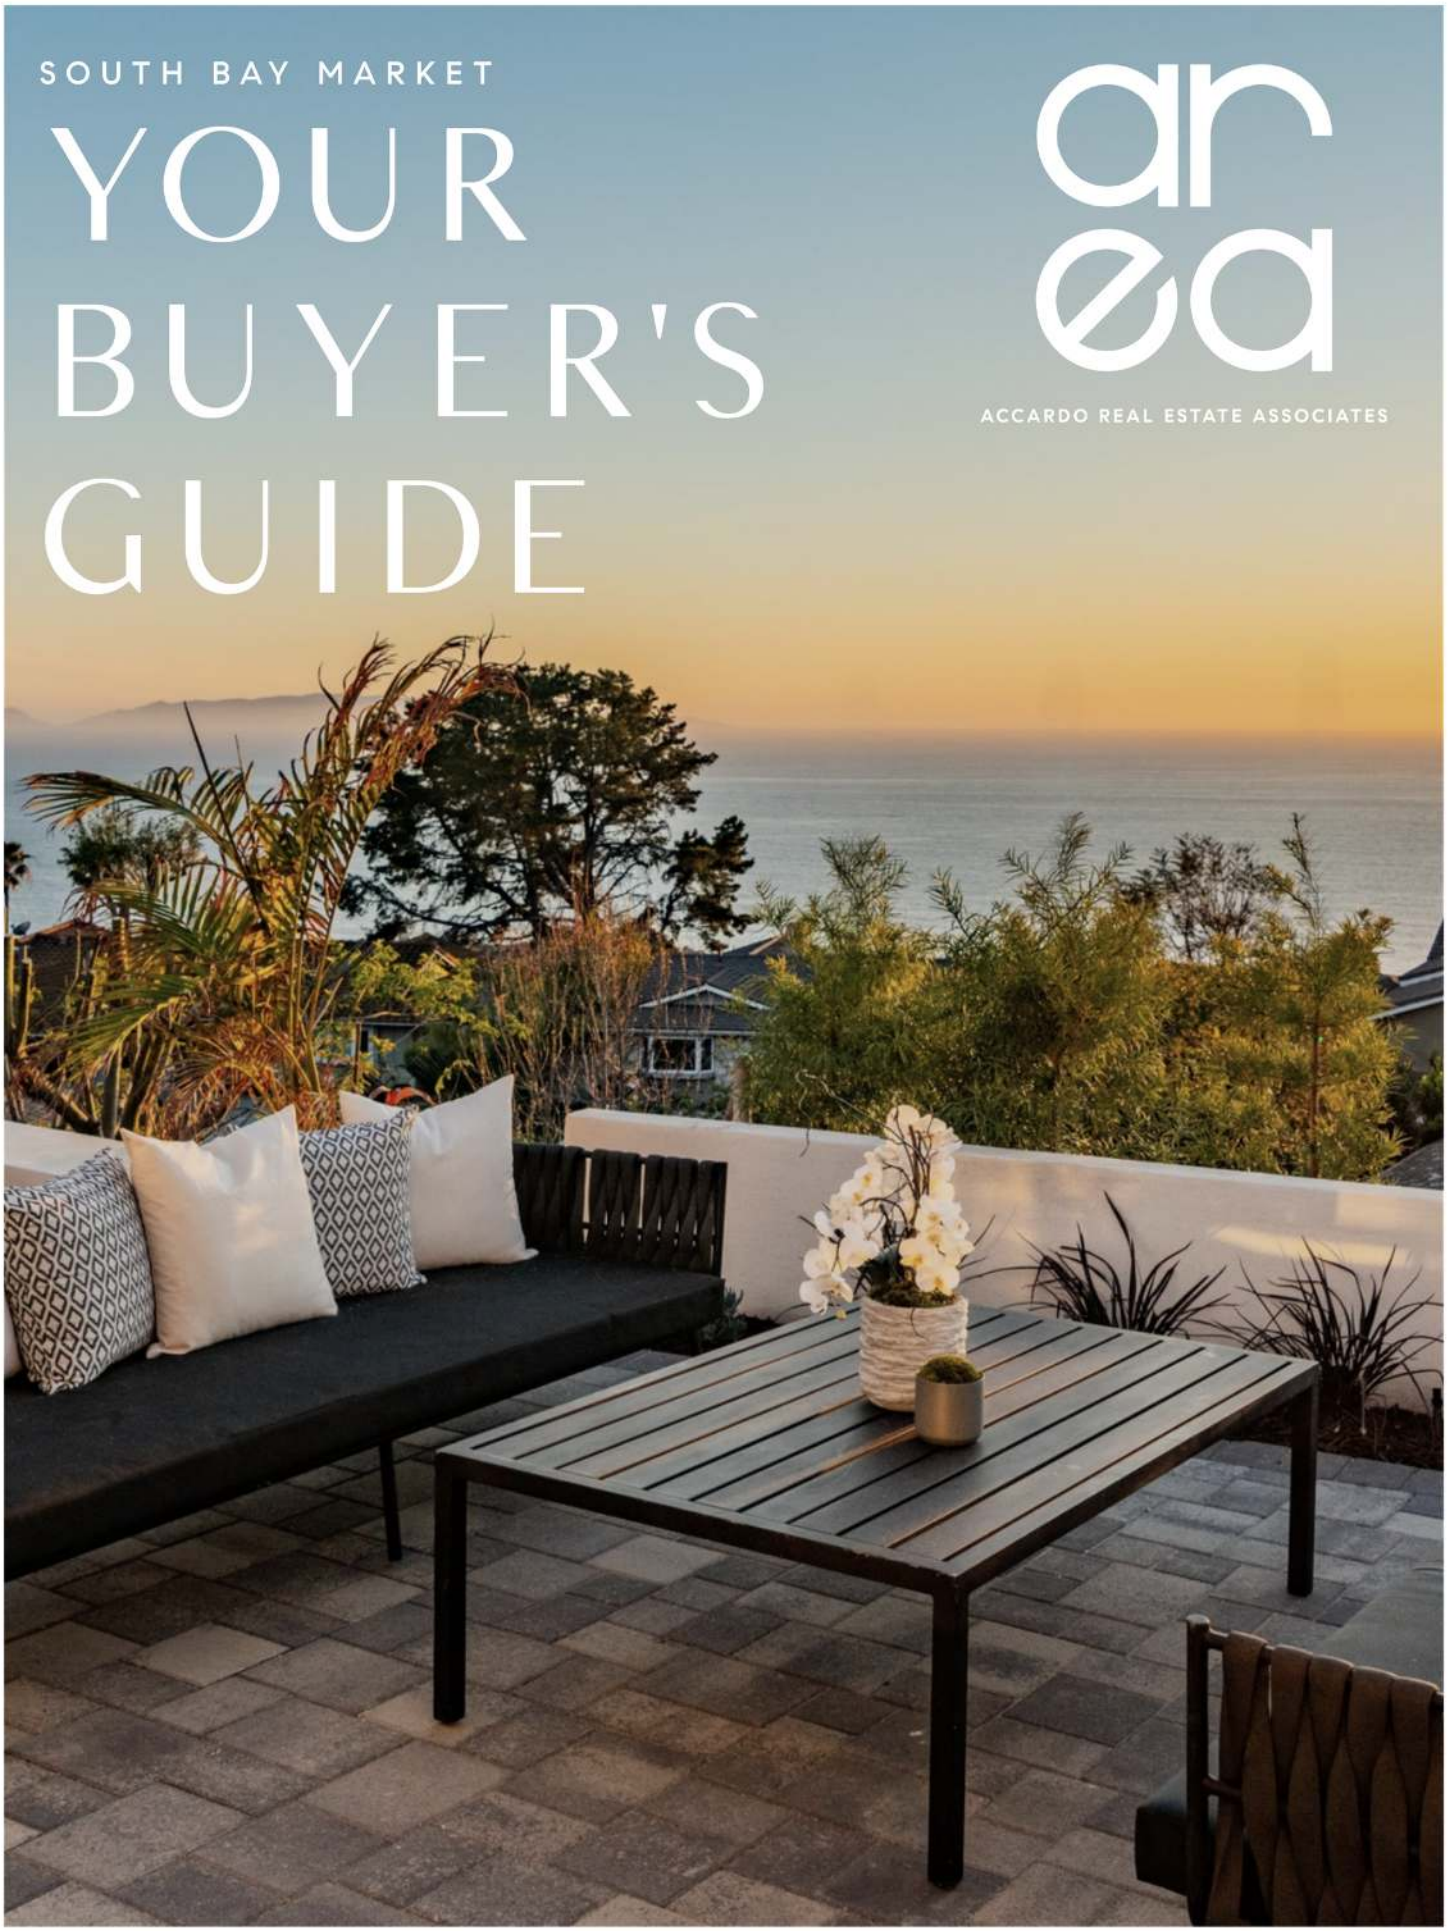
SOUTH BAY MARKET

YOUR BUYER'S GUIDE

ACCARDO REAL ESTATE ASSOCIATES



ANGELIQUE LYLE

The South Bay is one of the most desirable real estate markets, and I know that navigating the buying process can seem challenging. However, with my expertise, breadth of knowledge, and local network, you are in dedicated and trustworthy hands. I will guide and advise you during every step of the buying process.

How I support buyers:

- Provide real-time market insights
- Use my knowledge of on and off market listings to find homes that meet your criteria
- Share local expertise and tours of the area
- Help build your "buyers team" by connecting you with trusted financing organizations, vendors, etc
- In a competitive market, I can help get your offer accepted

Let me show you why I'm the right agent for you.

THE PROCESS

01

Find an Agent

Set up a time to sit down with me to discuss the neighborhoods you're considering and how I can help guide your search.

02

Get Pre-Qualified

Before beginning your search, your first step is to get pre-approved for a mortgage loan (unless you will be paying the full price of your home in cash). I can recommend mortgage brokers. Based on your income and credit history, the mortgage broker will determine how much a bank will lend you, which will help determine the price range for your search.

03

Visit Properties

Now is the time to consider your ideal home's location and amenities. You will attend viewings and open houses spanning a range of areas and property types. Additionally, I will activate notifications for exclusive Coming Soon and Off-Market properties as they hit the market.

04

Submit an Offer and Negotiate

Once you identify a home you like, you can put in an offer, which is an agreement to pay a certain price for the home. This offer is packaged with a Proof of Funds (POF) and Pre-Approval Letter. Note: if your offer is lower than the list price or with terms not acceptable to the seller, the seller can return with a counter-offer price or acceptable terms, which you can accept, reject, or make another counter offer. I will provide advice throughout.

05

Escrow Process

DAY 1 Once your offer is accepted, escrow is officially open and the clock begins
DAY 2 Contact your insurance agent for homeowners coverage
DAY 3 Initial deposit due
DAY 1-17 Seller Disclosure review and buyer inspections.
Day 1-21 Loan is in underwriting and appraisal occurs

06

Home Inspections

It is the buyer's duty to select all desired inspections and determine the overall condition of the property within the agreed timeline and contractual contingencies. You will also review the disclosures and preliminary title report. You may approve or negotiate credits/repairs. Prior to closing, remember to schedule a final walk-thru of the property to verify property is still in acceptable condition and any negotiated repairs were done.

07

Loan and Appraisal

Organize an appraisal with your bank. Your completed mortgage application with all supporting documentation should be submitted to your chosen lender upon receipt of the fully signed Purchase Agreement. The bank then issues loan approval. Consequently, you'll wire the closing funds with the homeowner's insurance in place, and then the loan will be funded with clearance to close.

08

Final Walkthrough

A final walkthrough of the property is scheduled and completed just before closing. The walkthrough confirms that no damage has been done to the home since the time of inspection and that the major systems and appliances are in working order.

09

Closing

Once all the conditions of the contract have been satisfied, the loan is funded. The title company records the deed. Once notification of recording happens, you receive the keys to your new home!

10

Welcome Home!

Congratulations!
You are now a homeowner.

KEY TERMS

Get a better understanding of common real estate language and practices.

Appraisal

Assessment of the property's market value, for the purpose of obtaining a mortgage and performed by a licensed appraiser.

Assessed Value

Value placed upon property for property tax purposes by the tax collector.

Closing Costs

Expenses incidental to a sale of real estate, such as loan fees, appraisal fees, and title insurance.

Contingency

Certain criteria that have to be met in order to finalize the sale.

Debt-to-income ratio

The percentage of an individual's monthly gross income relative to the amount of debt owed.

Earnest Money Deposit (EMD)

A good faith deposit the buyer makes with an offer to show that you are serious about buying the property. Typically 3% of purchase price.

Final Walkthrough

The buyer reviews the house just before closing to make sure everything is in the same condition and that all home inspection items have been addressed.

Inspection

An expert conducts a formal review of the property to find visible issues that need to be repaired. Buyers typically make their offers contingent on an inspection, but sellers can conduct a pre-offer inspection to appeal to buyers. The buyer may choose to do additional inspections like radon and a sewer scope.

Lien Search

A background check on the property and the seller to ensure there are no outstanding debts or claims upon the property.

Pre-Approved

Advanced approval from a bank or other lending institution for a home mortgage.

Pre-Qualified

Potential buyers provide an overall financial picture and mortgage brokers provide an estimate of what level of loan you will likely be pre-approved for.

Title Insurance

Insurance to protect the buyer and lender against losses arising from disputes over the ownership of a property.

Recording Fees

A fee paid to the local government to officially report a sale of a home; usually paid by the seller.

CLIENT TESTIMONIALS

"Angelique Lyle was absolutely amazing in helping us buy our first home!The first time we met her we realized how down-to-earth, straight-talking, and generous with her time she is. These are not qualities that we found in many realtors that we spoke to at open houses, and it's something we really valued in Angelique. During our property search she was extremely well organized, flexible with her schedule, and always planned ahead so that our shopping around was as smooth and well-informed as it could be. She also provided us with fantastic referrals for mortgage lenders and insurance providers. Once we had selected a house, she was a great negotiator with the sellers, was very patient with our questions, explained a lot of the legalities and paperwork, and helped us identify risks and strategies which we may otherwise have missed. Angelique held our hands all the way through the property buying process and we cannot thank her enough. We will absolutely be reaching out to her when the time comes to buy our next home! Thank you, Angelique."
— Chris H.

"Angelique goes out of her way to ensure you get everything you're looking for in a property. She also puts in an incredible amount of time and effort searching for the home(s) right for you, but never rushes you while exploring a potential home. Furthermore, she does extensive research/background on each property while her warmth and charm make house hunting an exceptionally pleasant experience!"
— Mary H.

"I had the privilege to work with Angelique Lyle when I was searching for my next home. Initially, I started with a big map and with her help we narrowed it down to 2 to 3 cities. Angelique is amazing and her customer service is on another level. I always felt important with her. She's very responsive over the phone, text, email, over Compass, you name it! Let me say, for an entire week she was out of the country, and we were moving forward faster than most agents I had worked with in the past. When I found the house I wanted, the initial offer amount was perfect, not too high, not too low and it enabled me to win the house. This is where her experience came in handy. The counteroffer amount from the inspection report was also spot on! Again, her knowledge and experience played a huge role in all this. If you're shopping for a new home, I would highly recommend her."
— Bobby P.

"She is the one in a million, knows the market, can negotiate with the buyer and seller in a very business manner. She does what Bernard Baruch always liked to do "Make everyone feel like a winner"."
- John O.

"We have completed four transactions with Angelique involving 2 primary residences and 2 secondary residences. She worked tirelessly to get our transactions completed and to hold sales together. She stands out in her creative use of web-based marketing tools to find buyers others would miss. She does a great job!"
-Dan L.
