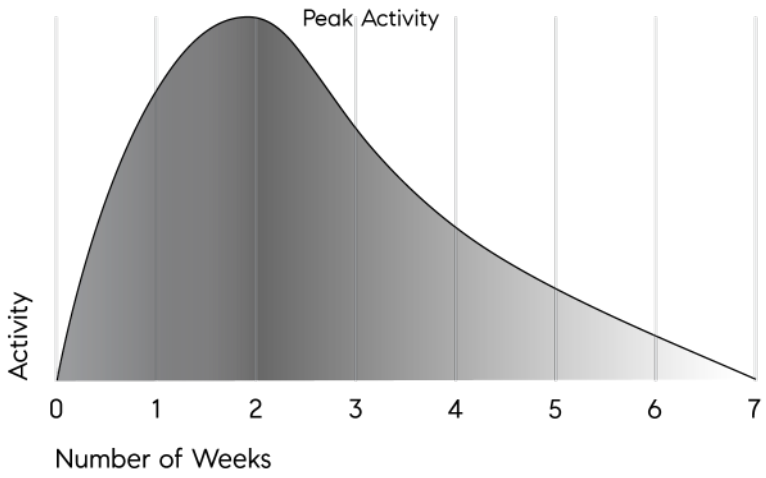
PRICING YOUR PROPERTY TO MAXIMIZE BUYER ACTIVITY TIMING OF BUYER ACTIVITY.

TIMING OF BUYER ACTIVITY

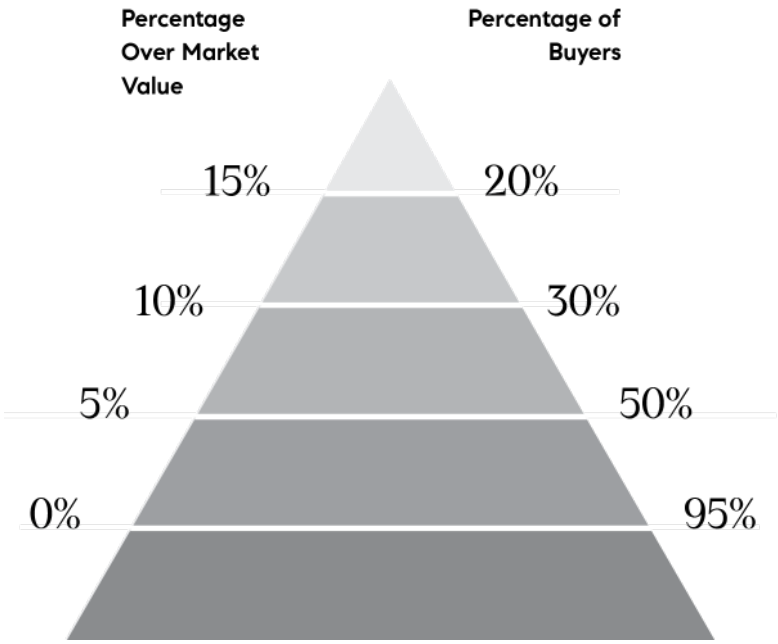


A property receives the most traffic within the first few weeks of hitting the market. It is important to get the price right in order to gain the attention of interested buyers and maximize your home's position in the market.

Attracting Buyers Using Competitive Pricing

Using competitive analysis, market research, and Compass' suite of AI-powered tools, we recommend a price for your property to generate the most activity and offers early on before buyers move on to newer listings.

If the asking price is too high, then the property appeals to fewer buyers.



YOUR MARKETING TIMELINE

Working with our in-house marketing and advertising agency, Accardo Real Estate Associates (AREA) will target the right audience across the most effective channels with a cohesive brand—all to elevate the style and story of your home.

OUR EXCLUSIVE COMPASS ADVANTAGE

PRIVATE EXCLUSIVES

A Private Exclusive listing is an off-market home that can be shared by a Compass agent with their Compass colleagues directly. Property details aren't disseminated and won't appear on public home search websites. Listing your home as a Private Exclusive allows you to control what information is shared — while still getting exposure to top agents at Compass.
AccardoRealEstate.com/private-exclusives

COMING SOON

Coming Soon gives us two separate opportunities to launch your property. We can list your home on Compass.com before going live on aggregate sites to build anticipation among potential buyers, while pressure-testing our pricing strategy — all without accruing days on market.

Compass Coming Soon and Private Exclusives are subject to local MLS restrictions and not available in all markets. Local policy definitions may restrict how Private Exclusive listings can be shared betweenagents, even within the same brokerage. Where the programs are available, pre-marketing and listing strategies are independently determined by the client. Compass does not recommend one particular strategy or guarantee results.
